

Congratulations to the 2017 Class of Rising Star Medical Leader Honorees!

John D. Dovich & Associates, LLC in conjunction with Venue Magazine are proud to sponsor the Rising Star Medical Leaders Awards. Each year, the best and the brightest ... the “Rising Stars,” within the Cincinnati healthcare landscape, are bestowed with this honor and are featured in the fall issue of Venue Magazine, as well as celebrated at a local event. This year’s event was held in late October at the Mad Tree Brewery in Oakley, with over 70 people attending to help celebrate this year’s class of honorees. Not only did we have this year’s honorees attend the event, but many of the Rising Star Medical Leader honorees from past years attended, as well.

Hosted by both John Dovich and Steve Wanamaker, publisher of Venue Magazine, the event featured Kristen Schlotman, Executive Director of FILM Cincinnati! as the keynote speaker. Kristen shared a brief film summarizing the history of filmmaking in Cincinnati, which highlighted the status of Greater Cincinnati as a rising star in the movie industry. With the revitalization of our city and its neighborhoods proving Cincinnati’s “rising star” status, it was only natural we showcased a local non-profit organization like FILM Cincinnati! with our Rising Star Medical Leaders recognition ceremony!

Special thanks to Steve Wanamaker and his staff at Venue Magazine for their support of this exciting annual recognition of our local Rising Star Medical Leaders!
