

Cincinnati Business Courier Announces Update in Annual Stock Picking Contest

Each year the Cincinnati Business Courier sponsors an annual stock-picking contest. This year, 29 contestants, that includes 28 local investment advisers and the Courier's actual picks, selected a portfolio in early January of five stocks they each thought would produce the best results throughout 2018, to include dividends. One of the contest requirements stipulates at least one of the stock selections must be a locally-based company.

We are happy to announce John D. Dovich & Associate's chief investment officer, Shawn Fishbaugh, is currently third in this contest! The local company Shawn selected for this particular competition is AtriCure (Nasdaq: ATRC), based in Mason, OH, and a manufacturer of medical devices.

The contest runs through the end of 2018. For more information about this annual contest and a list of the contests' top 10 ranked by total return, visit the Cincinnati Business Courier website:
